Tuesday, October 26, 2005 What does it mean to them? To women it means the obligatory Red Head. She's a natural Redhead, Erika, with the hair of a fiery, ravenous hog..as they say "They just can't help themselves". Naturally high maintenance, they simply can't help the products and services to fall from their head. As a designer, I have plenty of ladies to draw from. We've got women all the way from California, Vancouver, Toronto and Halifax. It didn't take long to realize that they are on a constant quest for that one "will not survive without" product. Some use Ceruse, some use blonde dye, some use Red dye, some use washing their hair once a week, some use every day. They all have their own system. But, the one thing that they all agree on is that they need that lil' blue pill. The one with that little red spot on it, for the life of them, they can not figure out. They'
